2013 saw a lot of changes at the Indianapolis Legal Aid Society.

- We held our first open house to celebrate the move into new office space at the English Foundation Building. The move allowed all the staff to be situated within the same office space.
- We held our first Continuing Legal Aid education event which was extremely successful with 90 participants and raised $27,900.
- Johnson, Grossnickle and Associates conducted a philanthropic assessment and development study to help ILAS chart a course for the future.
- Board and staff completed Succession Plans and a new Investment Policy.

"For grandparents raising a grandchild, there are many legal issues to consider to be sure you have the authority and access to necessary resources to ensure the child's well-being."

MISSION: The Indianapolis Legal Aid Society is dedicated to ensuring that qualified low income persons living in the central Indiana community have immediate and direct access to quality legal assistance for civil disputes.
